FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

9. On or about May 20, 2014, at approximately 7:30 p.m., defendant officers, acting in concert, arrested plaintiff without cause at or close to the corner of St. Johns Pl and Howard Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, and charged plaintiff with PL 225.30(2) ‘Possession of a gambling device’.
10. Plaintiff, however, was not in possession of any gambling device and did not commit any offense against the laws of New York City and/or State for which any arrest may be lawfully made.
11. Prior to the arrest, plaintiff and some of his friends were watching a basketball game at the aforesaid location when defendant officers suddenly

16. Defendant officers detained the plaintiff at the precinct.
17. After detaining the plaintiff for a lengthy period of time at the precinct, defendant officers caused legal process to be issued to the plaintiff charging him with the aforesaid crime and requiring the plaintiff to appear in criminal court on September 18, 2014.
18. On September 18, 2014, plaintiff appeared in criminal court as he was directed by defendant officers but was advised that the false charge(s) levied against him by defendant officers were never docketed and that there were no charges pending against him.
19. That each and every officer who responded to and/or was present at the location of the arrest and/or at the precinct or station house knew and was fully aware that the plaintiff did not commit any crime or offense, and had a realistic opportunity to intervene to prevent the harm detailed above from occurring.
20. Nonetheless, defendant officers did absolutely nothing to discourage and prevent the harm detailed above from occurring and failed to intervene.
21. As a result of the aforesaid actions by the defendants, plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer emotional distress, fear, embarrassment, humiliation, shock, discomfort, loss of liberty, loss of rights to familial association, wages and financial losses, pain and damage, and damage to reputation.
